

Who is the author of this letter?

What is author asking for?

What is the nature of the request? What kinds of reasons does the author present to justify the request?

What do you find surprising or confusing about the request or the language the letter-writer uses?